Cougars' Defence Sags As Totems Triumph, 5-4

By JIM TANG

Suddenly going sour when it appeared as if they had matters pretty well under control, Victoria Cougars blew two points at Memorial Arena last night when they dropped a 5-4 overtime decision to Seattle Totems in a Western Hockey League game played before 2,260 fans.

WESTERN DIVISION	GP	W	L	T	F	A	Pts
Seattle	53	30	20	3	208	164	63
Vancouver	51	21	21	9	154	154	51
Spokane	55	21	29	5	172	213	47
VICTORIA	53	21	28	4	165	198	46
New Westmin	53	17	34	2	183	237	36
EASTERN DIVISION
Calgary	48	33	14	1	190	127	67
Edmonton	51	30	22	3	157	145	55
Saskatoon	49	23	23	3	158	157	49
Winnipeg	47	22	23	2	183	173	46

Last night's scores: Seattle 5 at VICTORIA 4 (overtime); Vancouver 0 at Spokane 4; Edmonton 0 at Saskatoon 3; New Westminster 0 at Calgary 9.

Next games: today, Vancouver at Seattle. Monday, Edmonton at Winnipeg.

They got their money's worth and more in fast-paced action but they again left muttering about defence, the Victoria lack of it that is.

It was the eighth straight game in which the Cougar attack has been good enough for four or more goals, but it was the fourth loss in the streak.

Defeat cost the Cougars third place in the Western Division as well as a chance to move 12 points ahead of the trailing New Westminster Royals, the team they obviously have to beat out for a playoff spot.

GOOD TO BAD

It was another frustrating display by a club which can go, and does, from good to bad in a matter of minutes and which has recently got into the habit of not being able to hold a lead.

Quickly recovering after Guyle Fielder and his linemates started action on a high note for the Totems, the Cougars took over, and for the last half of the first period and all of the second, they looked like far the better club.

They took a 3-0 lead, saw it shrink to 3-2, then got what should have been an insurance goal before the period ended. But they seemed to run out of gas in the final 20 minutes, boobed often enough in their defensive chores to help the Totems pull even, and then faltered again in the extra period. It's sudden-death overtime in the WHL.

Coach Pat Egan sent out his highest scoring unit—the Gordie Haworth-Al Nicholson-George Ford combination—against Fielder's line. This strategy worked, up to a point.

Relieved of the defensive chores which are usually their lot, Doug Anderson, Bruce Lea and Doug Macauley clicked for a goal apiece in the first period to give the Cougars a 3-0 lead as they outplayed the Gerry Leonard-Bill MacFarland-Cummy Burton line. But it was all even at the end of the game as MacFarland scored twice, including the overtime goal, and Leonard once against what is considered the Cougars' best defensive line.

Fielder, who must be the most valuable player to his club in all hockey, scored Seattle's first goal, set up the one which forced overtime.

Most goals, of course, result from errors but, as usual, Cougar blunders were the most glaring.

Fielder was unmarked for his goal, taking a long pass and going in on the left side, and MacFarland nipped in for the rebound on Frank Arnett's shot with two Cougars, at least, having a chance to clear.

That made it close but all seemed well when Ron Blackburn finally pushed the puck into an empty goal after he and Enio Sclisizzi had played checkers with it for agonizing seconds, batting it back and forth in front of the goal line without being able to turn it in.

But Leonard was passed in the clear for the 3-4 goal, then Jim Powers got credit for the tying goal as two Cougars got themselves tangled up in the goal mouth with the puck at their skates.

MacFarland hooked the winner in as, once again, two Cougars played the puck and no one took out the man after Burton had slid the puck across the right side.

Leafs Trip Hawks; Habs Shade Bruins

Toronto Maple Leafs rudely pulled the welcome mat from beneath the Chicago Black Hawks yesterday, ending a season-long spell of hospitality.

Battling to get out of the National Hockey League basement, Leafs completely outclassed the second-place Black Hawks, 5-1. It was their first victory over the Black Hawks on Toronto ice this season.

In yesterday's other NHL game, the league-leading Montreal Canadiens went 14 points out in front of Chicago, edging the Boston Bruins, 2-1.

For the Leafs, who moved one point ahead of the idle Detroit Red Wings, Barry Cullen, George Armstrong, Billy Harris, Bob Pulford and Frank Mahovlich were the scorers.

Tod Sloan, sold to the Black Hawks by Toronto last summer, scored the only Chicago goal, his 21st of the season.

FREE-FOR-ALL

A free-for-all involving Toronto's Bob Baun and Bert Olmstead and Jack Evans and Eric Nesterenko of Chicago brought the crowd of 13,172 to its feet in the second period. All four drew major penalties.

At Boston, before 13,336 fans, Dickie Moore scored Montreal's winning goal midway through the third period. The goal was his 29th of the season and tied him with New York's Andy Bathgate for the goal-scoring lead.

	GP	W	L	T	F	A	Pts
Montreal	54	29	13	12	185	116	70
Chicago	55	23	31	12	156	158	58
Boston	56	24	25	7	162	172	55
New York	54	21	23	10	152	161	52
Toronto	54	19	26	9	136	156	47
Detroit	53	20	27	6	124	152	46

Yesterday's scores: Boston 1, Montreal 2; Chicago 1, Toronto 5.

Next games: today, Montreal at New York, Toronto at Detroit, Boston at Chicago.

Rookie Larry Leach was credited with his first NHL goal when the puck went in off a Montreal defenceman in the second period.

POWERS HURT

Henri Richard scored for Montreal in the first period. Referee Eddie Powers had to retire for five stitches in his forehead in the first period when he was accidentally clipped by Vic Stasiuk's stick.

IT BEATS ME

By Jim Tang

Bill Bamford, who sat it out through the 1958 Inter-City Lacrosse League season because of differences with Victoria Shamrocks, is reported thinking seriously of lining up with Nanaimo for this season, as is Jack Howse, who has requested a transfer to the Up-Island club . . . on the other hand, Shamrocks may have a chance to sign Gogie Stewart, said to be interested in playing lacrosse here this season . . . it is understood that from now on that the presidency of the ICLL will alternate between the Island and Mainland, which would mean that Doug Fletcher, elected vice-president at the annual meeting in Vancouver Friday night, will move up a notch next year . . . Tom McVie, a pretty useful performer from Nanaimo Timbermen last year, is doing well enough as a Western Hockey League rookie. Going into last night's game, McVie had scored 18 goals and been credited with 12 assists for Seattle's league-leading Totems . . . it may be that the Shamrocks won't be able to sign an import player this year. They're still trying to bring in Bob Pulford but the young National Hockey League star, who plans to be a teacher when his pro athletic career is over, is anxious to attend McMaster University and pick up some more credits in the summer months . . . and don't be surprised if Jackie Northup plays another season instead of refereeing . . .

Victoria Cougars could have had both Barry Ross and Ching Johnson this season but while agreeing that in view of what they have done it would have meant a division title, no fair-minded person can blame the Cougars for missing out on two forwards who have made a tremendous comeback.

Ross could have been obtained in the deal for Ed Dorohoy but he played here for a while last season without being noticed and scored only seven goals in 51 WHL games divided between Victoria and Calgary. The season before, he scored only four goals in 64 games, 27 of them with Calgary and 37 with Buffalo in the AHL. Who wouldn't have thought that either George Ford, Don McLeod, Enio Sclisizzi or Murray Wilkie was a better gamble?

Johnson could have been obtained from the New York Rangers, wound up with Spokane probably because the first-year Spokes needed talent and were willing to give anyone a try. Johnson had kicked around in the minor leagues since 1951-52 season without coming close to matching his rookie season. He had played in Edmonton, Sherbrooke, Vancouver, Quebec, Springfield, Providence and Three Rivers without making anyone anxious to keep him.

So what happened? Ross set a WHL record by getting points in 23 straight games for Winnipeg, now has 27 goals and 27 assists. Johnson has been amazing at Spokane, went into last night's game with 32 goals and 25 assists. You sure can be wrong being right.

★ ★ ★

Marcel Pelletier, it is true, is not playing as well as he has done in past seasons for the Cougars but the fans who have been booing him not only have short memories but aren't being fair, either. I this to be admitted that it would be difficult for anyone to not be jittery behind that defence when it's playing as badly as it does on occasion . . . each game solidifies the belief that Doug Anderson is the best defensive centre in the WHL . . . Nanaimo Clippers, a report has it, are being considered for a hockey tour of Japan in 1961 . . . elder statesman of the WHL at the moment is none other than Max Bentley, who will be 39 on March 1 . . . Victoria hockey fans have quite an interest in Belleville MacFarlands, who will try and retain the "world" hockey title for Canada next month. Barton Bradley, Wayne Brown, Eddie Marineau (remember him?) and Fiori Goegan all played pro hockey here and Bill Reay, who coached the Cougars for two seasons, is listed as assistant coach of the Macs . . . Larry Leach, who didn't throw his weight around too much when he was playing for the Cougars, racked up two or three Montreal Canadiens pretty good in yesterday afternoon's televised NHL game . . . Victoria curling has lost one enthusiastic veteran, is about to lose another. Hugh Renfrew now calls Nanaimo his home town and Ross Brown is heading for Kelowna at the end of the month.

Shutouts All Over; Spokes in Third

Emile "Cat" Francis posted his first shutout of the season last night as Spokane Spokes blanked Vancouver Canucks, 4-0, to move into third place in the western division of the Western Hockey League.

It was a night for shutouts in the WHL. At Calgary, Roy Edwards earned his first of the season as the Stampeders whipped New Westminster Royals, 9-0. Meanwhile, Lucien Dechene got his second of the schedule at Saskatoon, where the suddenly-hot Quakers downed Edmonton Flyers, 3-0.

At Calgary, Ron Leopold paced the scoring with a hat trick, while Lou Jankowski and Howie Glover got two each. Billy Hay and Sid Finney got one each, while Eddie Dorohoy, the league's top point-getter, collected three assists.

Jankowski's goals raised his total for the season to 35, high in the league. Rino Robazza drew four assists, tying a league record for defencemen in a single game.

Max Bentley, Paul Masnick and Bill Bucyk scored for the Quakers, as they posted their fifth straight victory to consolidate their hold on third place in the eastern division. Dechene made 29 saves, and drew an assist on Bucyk's goal, scored on an empty net.

Francis had little to do to earn his shutout at Spokane, making only 20 stops. Only on two occasions . . were the Canucks dangerous.

Del Topoll scored twice for the Spokes, his second goal coming at 19.39 of the final period on an empty net. Blinky Boyce opened scoring with a minute gone in the game, and Al Johnson scored in the second period.

Alberni Bonspiel Draws 40

PORT ALBERNI — Annual bonspiel of the Alberni Valley Curling Club will start Wednesday morning with the full quota of 40 rinks, 19 from the home club and 21 visiting quartets.

Victoria will be represented by eight rinks, Nanaimo by six, Vancouver by three, Chilliwack by two and Duncan and Parksville by one each.

There will be six events with all rinks guaranteed a minimum of five games. The Colonist and MacKenzie Trophies are open events and the Eaton and Woodward Trophies the secondary events. The Grand Challenge (Miller Trophy) is for rinks which reach the fours of the primary and secondary events. If there is duplication, the draw will be filled to 16 rinks by including the rink, or rinks, which have won the most games without getting into the jewelry.

The Miller Motors Trophy event, a consolation, is for rinks which fail to reach the semi-finals of the primary and secondary events and are not included in the Grand Challenge.

Wednesday's first five draws:

8 a.m.—Warren Paul (AVCC) vs. Jules Wenezenki (AVCC); Twin Brulotte (AVCC) vs. Bryce Blake (AVCC); Joe Lemmerick (AVCC) vs. Harry Stirnaker (AVCC); Hugh Renfrew (Vic) vs. Paul Meinick (AVCC.)

10.05 a.m.—Arden Brown (Van) vs. Wes Young (Vic); George Watson (AVCC) vs. Les Hobbs (AVCC); George Pollard (AVCC) vs. Gunnar Melander (AVCC); Ed Price (AVCC) vs. Jack Walker (Nan.)

12.10 p.m.—Cec Hooper (AVCC) vs. J. Gordon (Vic); Agnar Bergman (AVCC) vs. Frank Hunt (AVCC); Gene Koster (Nan.) vs. Cyril Bell (AVCC); Jack Coates (Parksville) vs. Gar Taylor (Vic.)

2.15 p.m.—George Morgan (AVCC) vs. Ben Brits (Chill); Shorty Berker (Dun) vs. Sid Thomson (Vic); Ivan Shillington (Vic) vs. Alex Schroh (Nan.); Gordon Heath (Chill) vs. Ed Pilipchuk (AVCC.)

4.20 p.m.—Harry Gulks (Nan) vs. Garr Leibel (Vic); Bill Morrow (Nan) vs. Jim Tang (Vic); Bob Fuller (Nan) vs. Annis Stukis (Van); Bud Clift (Nan) vs. Bob Cummings (AVCC.)

Vikings' Best Basketball Still Can't Stop Athletics

By JIM TAYLOR

Victoria College Vikings played their best basketball of the season in a losing cause last night as Alberni Athletics moved within a single game of the Island senior "A" title with a 78-62 victory at Central Junior High School gym.

Vikings boast only one victory in senior "A" competition this year, but their performance last night did much to vindicate a losing season. Trailing by 21 points early in the second half, they rallied to close the gap to eight points before the A's pulled away with a late burst.

Athletics, trounced 64-37 in the opener Friday, host Vikings next Friday needing only one more victory to take the best-of-five series. Fourth game, if necessary, will be played at Alberni Saturday night.

GRISDALE SHINES

Denny Grisdale, a second-stringer who has sparkled in the series, was high scorer for Alberni last night with 21 points. Al Brown added 12.

Scoring was well spread for the Vikings in a fine team effort. Waldo Skillings had 11 points, Ted Saunders, Rol Fieldwalker and Mike Soltice had 10 each, and Doug Flynn, the best ball-hawk on the floor, added eight.

Vikings' late surge might well have brought them closer. But Soltice and Ken McCulloch, who along with Skillings did a fine job clearing the boards, both fouled out in the final 10 minutes.

BIG FACTOR

Fouls were the big factor in the game, Athletics scored 17 points out of a possible 20 in the first half, when they built up a 49-30 lead, and added another 11 from the free-throw stripe in the second half.

In the opening game, Chemainus trounced an off-form College club, 55-30, to win the Island junior men's title. Chemainus won the first game of the two-game, total-point series, 50-45, Tuesday in Chemainus.

Don Samuelson scored 16 points for Chemainus.

Alberni — Brinham 9, Stephens 3, Larson 8, Brown 12, Speidel 7, Williamson 4, Grisdale 21, Hill 6, Panton 8, Gailloux. Total—78.

Vikings — Fieldwalker 10, Flynn 8, McCulloch 5, Skillings 11, Soltice 10, Tomlinson 5, Wilson 3, Saunders 10. Total—62.

Chemainus—Hlady 9, Samuelson 16, Clark 2, Cave 6, Robinson 6, Wheeler 11, Wasden 5. Total—55.

Victoria College—Showers 8, Sparks 10, Brice 3, Wong 2, Kendrew 2, McKay 4, Grenier 2. Total—30.

Overtime Victory

Sailors Knot Coy Cup Series

NANAIMO — Navy's Neil Standley and John Morris scored in overtime last night to defeat Nanaimo Clippers, 8-6, and square their best-of-five intermediate playoff at one game each.

Standley and Morris each scored three goals to pace Navy to their victory. Cliff Uhren and John Bond each scored once for the winners.

For Nanaimo, playing without Don Ashbee, who has been suspended for a year for striking a referee in the series' opener in Victoria, the scorers were Arnie Dugan, with two; Earl Robinson, Bill Sutherland, Bruno Furlan and Bud Dumont.

PULLED GOALIE

Nanaimo pulled its goalie late in the third period and the move paid off when Dugan fired the tying goal with just two seconds remaining.

After Navy had taken a one-goal lead in overtime, the Clippers once again pulled their netminder in favor of a sixth attacker. But this time the move backfired.

Standley, the leading scorer in the Victoria Commercial League this season, hit the open Nanaimo net from his own blueline for the insurance goal.

Third game in the series to decide an Island representative in the Coy Cup playdowns will be played at Victoria's Memorial Arena Wednesday.

Totems Capture Hoop Tourney

Victoria High School's Totems last night won the Lower Island Basketball Tournament with a 43-24 defeat of the previously unbeaten Esquimalt Dockers.

Fast and shifty, the smaller Totems outran and outshot the tall Dockers.

Darryl Lorimer, in spite of fouling out in the last quarter, led the Totem sniping with 21 points, trailed by Dave Black with 13. Dockers were led by Angus Mitchell with 11, followed by Barry Chandler with eight.

Oak Bay High recovered from their Friday night defeat to whip St. Louis College 47-12, and finish third in the tournament.

Wayne Farmer, captain of the Oak Bay squad, recovered from his Friday night scoreless showing to lead his team with 17 points, followed by Don Kirkpatrick with eight.

Top four teams — Victoria High, Esquimalt High, Oak Bay High and Belmont—will go to the Mid-Island playoffs to be held next Friday and Saturday at Cowichan High School.

How they finished: Victoria High Totems, Esquimalt High Dockers, Oak Bay High, Belmont High, St. Louis College, Mt. View High, North Saanich High, Mt. Douglas High.

North Saanich—Christian 7, Lines 4, Locke 6, Jordan, Brain, Richardson 8, Collins, Moulton 2, Nunn, Rousseu 2. Total 31.

Mt. Douglas—Blake 9, Lawrence 12, Greenwood, Duval 3, Lum, Lee 2, Little, Hill, Stephens, Paterson. Total 24.
